Educational Reform in the Old Eighth Ward - With biography of William Howard Day

Drew Hermeling
Messiah College, ahermeling@messiah.edu

Digital Harrisburg

Follow this and additional works at: https://mosaic.messiah.edu/look

Part of the African American Studies Commons, Education Commons, United States History Commons, and the Urban Studies and Planning Commons

Permanent URL: https://mosaic.messiah.edu/look/5

Recommended Citation

Sharpening Intellect | Deepening Christian Faith | Inspiring Action

Messiah College is a Christian college of the liberal and applied arts and sciences. Our mission is to educate men and women toward maturity of intellect, character and Christian faith in preparation for lives of service, leadership and reconciliation in church and society.
"Education...is not simply extent, it is depth. And the depth will never be sounded until the mind of the student can by application weave the thought of the author into thoughts of his own—until the implanted lessons can be deduced—led out—into thoughts which are ours. That is education"

—William Howard Day, in the Harrisburg Daily Independent, June 1, 1893