WOMBS WOUNDS

Laney Kuczmynda

i can see myself, one day soon — not yet, or not now at least — seeing myself in a dark, one-man submarine.
i can't sit with grief;
i slash and scrub and scald it away.
if i could be housed in walls of pressure & steel,
i don't think it would find me,
and i could, maybe,
push my way out into some sort of rebirth.
