Rising Morning

Megan Hamilton

As the sun touches the tips of trees,
And a smooth grey light gently
Wakes up the natural world,
The early morning whispers
To my restless soul.

A path before me opens while
Sleepers close their eyes, avoiding the dawn,
But the whimsy of solitude in nature
Is that which draws me further on.

I seek the Mountains who stand courageous,
The Ocean who steadfastly pushes through,
The Forest who keeps our secret desires,
And the Sky who guides me true.

I need no overlook nor glorious sunrise
To be united with the mystery I find
In the quiet, wide-open early morning,
And so, eagerly, I rise.
