2011

The Collaborating Librarian: Partnering Across Campus to Assist Assessment Efforts

Beth M. Transue
Messiah College, btransue@messiah.edu

Recommended Citation

Transue, Beth M., "The Collaborating Librarian: Partnering Across Campus to Assist Assessment Efforts" (2011). Library Staff Presentations & Publications. 5.
https://mosaic.messiah.edu/libstaff_pub/5

Librarians worked with the Provost Office and key campus stakeholders on two related projects to assess syllabi, and library-related assignments.

Librarians → Provost

Assessment Cycle

Faculty → School deans

Key Stakeholders:
- Provost
- Schools and Deans
- Acad. Departments
- Office of Disability Services
- Registrar
- Learning Center
- Writing Center

What We Gained:
- Demonstrated use of library resources.
- Improved liaison relationships.
- Continued as key stakeholders in campus assessments.

"[The Provost] was quite taken with your preliminary report. Is it alright with you if he shows it to others? He would also like to invite the two of you to present at a future Academic Council meeting. … He thinks your work is highly relevant ..."

Syllabus Project Findings:
- Course objectives
- Integrity Policy
- ADA Statement
- Course Management Software
- Writing Center, Learning Center
- Library Resources

Library Related Assignments Project Findings:

Assignments by School

- Arts: 7.2%
- Business, Education and Social Sciences: 34.7%
- Health, Engineering and Natural Sciences: 12.7%
- Humanities: 36.5%
- General Education: 8.9%

Sources by Assignment Type

Number of Sources by Course Level