A QUIET REMEMBERING

Isabella Farrington

Watching the sky in sloped-back chairs,
Your presence next to mine
When you already knew I needed you.

Tufts of cotton candy
Pulled apart by The Artist's hands,
Frozen in time as
They fall
Stopping my own descent.

Relinquished from the masses
Separated as I
Towards the slivered prism –
Of which I pointed out to you
*And then watched with

A reminder that appeared,
Just when a promise was being
Forgotten.
