Sharpening Intellect | Deepening Christian Faith | Inspiring Action

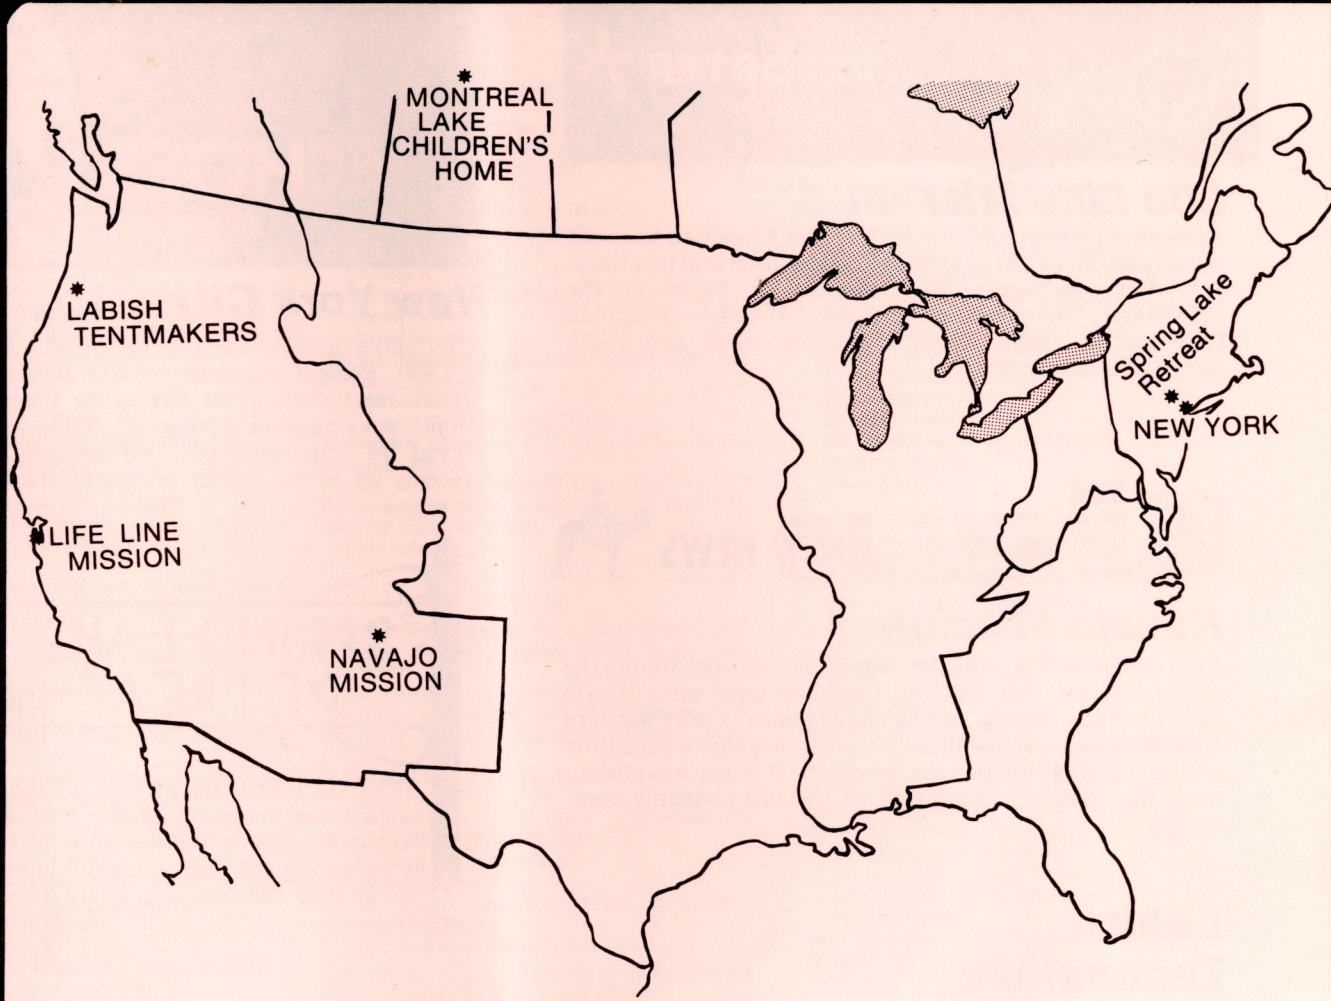

Messiah University is a Christian university of the liberal and applied arts and sciences. Our mission is to educate men and women toward maturity of intellect, character and Christian faith in preparation for lives of service, leadership and reconciliation in church and society.

Special Missions North America

The needs encountered in some communities are often not easily managed with normal congregational tools. Over the years the church's activities among the disadvantaged, the lost and the poor have borne some inspiring results, leading men and women into a living relationship with Christ.

Christian community in fluid situations takes on special characteristics. On the one hand, it is live and vibrant, and touches real human need. On the other hand, it is constantly changing and often cannot achieve enough resources to maintain itself without the assistance of the larger Christian fellowship. This continuing need for assistance presents both problems and opportunities.

A growing awareness of the validity of ethnic self-identity is helping the Brethren in Christ minister through its SPECIAL MISSIONS enterprises with deeper understanding.

Special Missions North America

Seventh in a series on Brethren in Christ Missions

Life Line Mission

Brethren in Christ mission work in San Francisco has been continuous since 1911, although based in several locations. A "skid row" ministry presently is based at the MISSION, 907 Folsom St. The CHAPEL is at 422 Guerrero St., from which a congregational and youth ministry is conducted.

Navajo Mission

First envisioned in 1887, an organized ministry among the original Americans was not launched until after World War II. The ministry among the Navajos in northwestern New Mexico soon had three phases: evangelism, education and medical. Presently the program is being adapted to meet the contemporary needs of the fast-changing community.

Labish Tentmakers

To supplement and enrich the ministry of a Brethren in Christ congregation in Labish Village, a special voluntary service team has been working here for the past several years. The VSers live in the multi-cultural community, sharing in its day-to-day living and needs.

ECHOES
OF NEW YORK

New York City

After half a decade of trying, the work in New York began in 1960. Present missions activity centers in the Bronx. Significant development has taken place with a multi-ethnic congregation emerging. Voluntary Service has played an important part throughout this period. At present, an active youth program touches the lives of many.

SPRING LAKE RETREAT in the Catskill Mountains is an extension of the New York ministries. Atop a mountain 70 miles from the city, Spring Lake is becoming the place to which more and more city youth and families are going for inspiration and recreation.

Montreal Lake Children's Home

In 1968 the Brethren in Christ became involved in this hostel ministry (established in 1952), which serves Indian children from a wide area of Saskatchewan who come out of the bush to attend school. In 1969 General Conference approved the transfer of responsibility for the Home from the Northern Canada Evangelical Mission to the Board for Missions. A number of Mennonite groups in Saskatchewan participate in the ministry of the Home. A pastoral ministry in the community is emerging as well.
