Brethren in Christ

"The legacy of Brethren in Christ Missions and service being one of personal sacrifice, this spirit and cardinal philosophy shall characterize all Board members." (Manual of Doctrine and Government)

GIVING SHAPE TO THE MISSIONS VISION
BY GENERAL CONFERENCE ASSIGNMENT

Across the brotherhood there are 111 persons who have been at one time or another assigned by General Conference to serve on the Mission Board or one of its auxiliaries. Among this group there is represented more than 700 cumulative years of responsible decision-making for the corporate body in the interests of missions.

Auxiliaries: Women's Missionary Prayer Circle (1948)
Women's Missionary Sewing Auxiliary (1961)
Persons named by General Conference, through the Nominating Committee, to carry decision-making responsibility in the interest of missions (including United Christian and United Zion representatives):
